Being Kyäni Business Partners means you have proven yourselves to be dream followers, inspiration builders, and legacy makers. As leaders, it is important you look back and be proud of every single thing you have accomplished, and continue to raise the bar each time you succeed.

Here's to you and to all your future success!

Carl Taylor, FOUNDER

Carl Taylor

Everything in this catalogue has been hand-picked by us to show our deep gratitude for the dedication, loyalty, and courage it has taken you to reach this point in your journey. While no one gift could possibly express how much we appreciate you, your families, your teams, or your work, it is a small token of our gratefulness and recognition.

Thank you for all of your incredible hard work! Take the time to enjoy and celebrate every step of your success. You deserve it!

BUILD A LEGACY TO BE PROUD OF

Paul Vorwaller, Diamond—USA

“Before I was introduced to Kyäni, I loved my career but it owned my time and attention. My greatest regret is not having taken more TIME to be all-in with my family. Now through Kyäni, I live my life with total confidence in our future, allotting all the time I feel is needed to focus on family. Thank you, Kyäni, for the opportunity to go after our dreams and achieve them!”

Danielle Loxton, Green Diamond—Australia

As a mother, it's important to me to have a way of contributing financially to our home that fits in with the family schedule. Kids are only young a short time, so having the freedom to enjoy each stage with them and have some level of balance makes all the difference. Then, to be building something with Kyani, a company of integrity that just continues evolve and grow, constantly improving, gives me the confidence that this is a business that will stay in my family for generations. My kids love learning about the business and health and are already showing their entrepreneurial spirit they have learned from watching my husband and I. It's a great way to instill work ethic and responsibility, teaching them to have an open mind, while showing them work is also fun and very rewarding!
